The Independent Election Commission
African Evaluation Association

Dear Sir/Madam,

A Motivation Letter for the Position of Vice President of African Evaluation Association (AFrEA)

I am writing to express my interest in the position of Vice President at the African Evaluation Association (AFrEA). With a deep passion for evaluation and a commitment to advancing the field in Africa, I believe I am well-equipped to contribute to the association's mission and objectives.

Having worked in the field of evaluation for several years, I have gained valuable experience in designing and implementing evaluation frameworks for diverse projects and programs across Africa. I understand the unique challenges and opportunities that evaluation professionals face on the continent and I am dedicated to promoting best practices and building capacity within the sector.

I am particularly excited about the opportunity to serve as Vice President of AFrEA and work alongside a team of dedicated professionals to drive the association's strategic goals. I am committed to fostering collaboration among members, promoting knowledge sharing, and advocating for the importance of evaluation in informing decision-making and improving program outcomes.

In addition to my technical expertise in evaluation, I bring strong leadership, communication, and strategic planning skills to the role. I have a proven track record of successfully leading teams, developing partnerships, and implementing innovative solutions to complex challenges.

I am enthusiastic about the prospect of contributing to the growth and impact of AFrEA as Vice President. I am eager to leverage my skills and experience to support the association's members, promote excellence in evaluation practice, and advocate for the value of evaluation in driving positive change in Africa.

Thank you for considering my application.

Sincerely,

Ngala Mercy Lemye epse Ndembe Mokake

Vice President
